Roanoke, Va., May 4.—In a close and exciting game, Richmond defeated Roanoke to-day by the score of 5 to 4. Revelle had to be called on in the eighth inning to save the day, Verbout having had his measure taken by the locals. Andrada was on the firing line for Roanoke, and worked in great shape. Spratt tried to steal home in the sixth, collided with Messitt, and a fight was narrowly averted. Messitt lost his temper, struck at Spratt, and the latter squared himself for a fight. Other players rushed in and separated the two men. Messitt was roundly roasted by the fans, among whom he has been heretofore very popular. Score:

driver, and no cars may pass any car on the road except the pilot car, but cars may check in ahead of time on reaching noon and night controls.

Route From Richmond. The route through Richmond this morning will be from The Times-Dispatch Building up Main Street to Fifth, thence to Franklin, to Adams, and thence out Brook Avenue to Chamberlayne Avenue.

It was unfortunate that Fredericksburg, the city which so enthusiastically took up the good roads movement last summer, should have been left out of the route, but it was necessitated by the condition of the roads in Spotsylvania county. Yet, to show the deep interest still taken in the good roads movement by the good people of Fredericksburg, a dispatch was received from that city last night saying that a number of citizens have chartered an engine and car over the Piedmont, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad to Orange to-day in order to be present at Orange upon the arrival there of the members of the Virginia Endurance Run.

The dispatch says: "Our citizens are enthusiastic over every movement that tends to road improvements and are anxious to encourage motoring as an important factor in that direction. It is confidently expected that the good roads that are to be built in Spotsylvania and Stafford counties within a short time will put Fredericksburg on a favorite route for motorists and capitalists who seek to invest in farm lands. The special train carrying the party will arrive at Orange at 10 o'clock, returning at 4 o'clock in the afternoon."

Cars Taking Part. The cars, with their official numbers and their passengers, taking part are as follows:

- No. 1, W. E. Gordon, Otis Alfriend, A. S. Canacho and Allen Potts, managing editor of The Times-Dispatch (non-contestant).

Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

Another good old man of the Virginia League lost his job yesterday when Tydeman, of the Danville club, was given his release. Tydeman was a strong man in the league last summer, but this season he hasn't been hitting the ball as a good hitter should do, and that was the end of the engagement. Younger men are getting on to the job these days, and the old ones are losing out if they do not get into condition on the spot.

Verbout fell down in the eighth inning yesterday for the second time in a couple of weeks, when Roanoke came very near to turning the trick on the Colts. Verbout held down Shaughnessy's men to two runs until that box, but the old arm gave out, and before he could get back they had swatted him for the couple. Tom Messitt, who was right smartly worried anyhow at that time, saw the trouble, and using a head that has gotten him many a job, pulled Verbout out and put Revelle in the box. Revelle, of course, got away with the goods and stopped the run-setting for the rest of the game.

It looked mighty like war in that sixth inning, when Pratt tried to steal home. The Roanoke made the impression of attempting to do things to Young Tom, and the latter worthy put up his dukes and began to start things. Spratt was nothing loth, having had the wind knocked out of him in the collision with one of Shaughnessy's men, the crowd went the other way, and it sounded like a spring course, and it sounded like a spring course.

DANVILLE WINS TEN-INNING GAME

Bussey Given Fine Support, and Truckers Are De.

Danville, Va., May 4.—After losing four games in succession to Stafford's Trucksters, the Tobaccoists shook their hoodoo this afternoon, and after a ten-inning battle, took the game in a heart disease finish, winning out by the score of 4 to 1. Bussey pitched a beautiful game for the locals, and was given gilt-edge support by his team mates. Welcher, a new man, twirled for the visitors. He had plenty of speed and control, but towards the end weakened just a bit. The Truckers, in the eighth, tied the score, with a man on second, with a two-bagger. Frank Morrissey gave general satisfaction as umpire.

HOT FIGHT ON AT UNIVERSITY

Committee of Fifty Would Do Away With Secrecy in Regard to Athletic Matters.

Against what is called "faculty domination" of the General Athletic Association of the University of Virginia, a portion of the student body of that institution, headed by a committee of fifty, has started a campaign for the election of officers of the Athletic Association, that will keep the students in a ferment until after Saturday, when the election will be held. At present the situation is tense and the campaign is at fever heat.

The party, in the student body, headed by the committee of fifty, has pledged itself to a publicity platform which threatens to put the faculty power in the minority, and to let the athletics be run for the students. To this end the committee has nominated J. E. Elliott, of the football team, for president of the G. A. A. and Thomas Towles and W. W. Douglas as members of the advisory board.

The faction in opposition to the committee of fifty is headed by J. S. Hume, of Portsmouth. The platform adopted by this action is to keep athletics in the university as they are. The situation was brought to a head in the university last week when the retiring advisory board, of which Dr. Albert Lefevre was faculty representative, re-elected Dr. Lefevre to the advisory board for another two-year term. The new advisory board goes into office next week and the by-laws of the G. A. A. gives that body the right to elect the faculty member of the board.

If the faction headed by the committee of fifty wins out in the election Saturday, it is expected that Dr. Lefevre's election last week will be declared illegal and another member be elected.

In a circular distributed by the committee of fifty this week the committee

VIRGINIA AND HARVARD PLAY A TEN-INNING TIE

Game Called on Account of Rain and Darkness: Both Teams Play Good Ball—Brown and Ernst, Rival Pitchers, in Excellent Form.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Cambridge, Mass., May 4.—Harvard and the University of Virginia fought ten innings in the drizzling rain this afternoon, and then darkness set in, with honors even. The score was 1 to 1.

Despite the condition of the grounds, both teams played good ball. Brown, the former Andover boy, twirled for the Southerners, and held the Crimson down to five hits. His opponent, Ernst, did a little better, as he allowed Virginia but four safe bingles.

Virginia was first to score. In the fourth Hume led off with a bunt that Lanigan threw wild, allowing Hume to take third. Carter popped to Ernst, and Pritchett fanned, but Douglas came through with a single, scoring Hume. Blakeney singled right after Douglas, but an attempted double steal didn't work.

Harvard's lone run came in the seventh, when Douglas made a wild throw or Aronson's bunt, the latter perching on second. Kelley sacrificed, and Babson sent Aronson home with a single. Virginia had a fine chance to score in the eighth, but Marshall's great catch of Roan's drive settled matters.

tee declares that under the present system of faculty domination the affairs of the G. A. A. are absolutely unknown to the student body. It is further stated that the G. A. A. is an institution for the students and that all matters, except those which would manifestly do harm if made known, should be made public.

The committee therefore declares that the Elliott faction, should it win out in the election, will pledge itself to make G. A. A. matters known to the students.

Another matter to which the Elliott faction is pledged is to stick to the alumni coaching system for football, but to employ professional coaches for baseball and track teams if the G. A. A. is of the opinion that such is the best method.

Word from the university shows that the campaign for G. A. A. offices is being fought to a finish this week and it is expected that the contest will be a hot one. Many alumni of the university are expected back to vote and every student in college is working for either one side or the other.

TRINITY LOSTS FAST GAME.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Louisville, Ky., May 4.—In a fast and snappy game, Trinity was today defeated by the Central University of Kentucky, by a score of 3 to 1. Godfrey, for the home team, pitched a good game up to the seventh inning, when he walked three men and allowed a hit, which scored two men. Claude West was taken from short, and put in his stead, but not in time to prevent a beautiful squeeze, which tied the third and last run for the "Blue Grass" boys. Trinity's run was made in the third, after a three-base hit by Williams and a line drive to centre by Poushee. Williams' batting was a feature for Trinity, while the pitching of Godfrey for Kentucky was of high class.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Central 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3 1. Trinity 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1 5. Batteries: Central—University—Diedrich and Seelbach. Trinity—Godfrey, Claude West and Poushee.
